INTRO SPEECH

Dear Colleagues

On behalf of the Organizing Committee and Fondazione International Menarini, it is a great pleasure for us to welcome you to the upcoming International Symposium on “Hot Topics in Cardiovascular Medicine and Anticoagulation” , which will be held in Cancun on June 24-25, 2022.

Cardiovascular Disease and especially Coronary Heart Disease is the leading cause of death worldwide, and continues its decade long rise for almost all countries and not only the high income ones. However, with the prevention and effective treatment we have succeeded in not only significantly reducing morbidity and mortality, but also increasing life expectancy, despite the residual risk that still exists.

During the two days Symposium, Opinion Leaders and renewed Experts from all around the world will share their knowledge and will discuss the important role of prevention and diagnosis, as well as the latest data for the best clinical management options.

You will have the opportunity to contribute to the highest level of Cardiovascular Science going through a very rich Scientific Program, and all together with Local and International Speakers, we will address the most important Cardiovascular Risk Factors, Hot Topics in all the area of Cardiovascular Continuum such as Hypertension, Heart Failure, Chronic Coronary Syndromes, Arrhythmias, etc.

The second day will be dedicated to Thrombosis and Anticoagulation and will discuss special topics for Thromboprophylaxis, the role of DOAC's in Atrial Fibrillation and not only, but also important thinks for COVID-19 and post-COVID Syndrome.

The presence of Opinion Leaders and Experts from all around the world shall ensure the success of the International Symposium.

We cordially invite you to join us.
