International Symposium on: Bridging Science & Care in Allergy, Rhinology & Dermatology 2026

RATIONALE

This meeting has the goal to be a platform for global collaboration, bringing together experts from around the world to advance our understanding of allergies, rhinology, and dermatology. Throughout this conference, we will engage in cutting-edge discussions, share groundbreaking research, and explore ways to align perspectives in these key fields. With sessions led by renowned faculty and thought leaders, our goal is to bridge the gap between scientific advancements and clinical practice, ensuring that our collective knowledge translates into improved patient care worldwide. As co-presidents of this meeting, we are honored to have such a distinguished team of experts and look forward to collaborating with you for a fruitful success of this event. We encourage you to actively participate, exchange ideas, and take full advantage of this opportunity to shape the future of our disciplines.
